

The Armthorpe School

A Specialist School in The Arts and Sport

15th December 2011

Dear Parent/Carer

Severe Weather Conditions – January 2012 Examinations

January examinations begin on Tuesday 10th January 2012. If during this period we experience severe weather conditions students who have examinations must attend school for their examination.

Students should regularly check the school website and listen to the local radio station Trax FM. Text messages will be sent to parents with regular updates.

The school may well be closed to all other students but examination candidates are expected to arrive by 8.30am (extra time should be allowed for the journey). If students are going to be late because of the inclement weather, school must be informed immediately so that appropriate arrangements can be put in place.

If you have any further questions please do not hesitate to contact myself, Mrs S Cooper, Assistant Headteacher i/c examinations, or your son/daughter's Head of Year.

Yours sincerely

Mrs L Covell
Examinations Officer
